

About TV3C

The Village Center for Culture & Character, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization providing educational travel and cultural exchange programs for underrepresented youth. Our mission is to empower future global leaders by connecting them to history and fostering cultural understanding. We address critical issues like teenage pregnancy and gang involvement, offering transformative experiences that enhance the well-being of young people in the USA and Africa. We also offer private excursions that assist in our efforts.
